It is our honor and pleasure to assist you in a selling your property. In order to make the experience a positive one for all, the below policies are in place so both parties have a clear understanding of expectations.

Consignment Policies

- The Freighthouse primarily focuses on consignment/sale of antique to contemporary: home furniture, decor and accessories; art (original); and jewelry (not fine). Miscellaneous items such as (but not limited to) books, greeting cards, specialty clothing, and handbags may be accepted.
 - Items not accepted include but are not limited to appliances, electronics, exercise/sports equipment, children's toys, most clothing, and large furniture pieces.
- Photo and description (example: material, size, date, maker) of each item should be emailed to Freighthouse1260@gmail.com or brought into the store, between 10:00 – 12:00, for preliminary evaluation to determine salability.
- All consigned property should be clean and in good condition (free of major damage – average wear from normal use, ok.)
- Consignor shall make appointment with the Freighthouse to deliver consigned property during business hours.
 - Property dropped off outside of business hours is assumed donated to the Freighthouse and becomes the property of the Freighthouse to discard, sell or donate at its sole discretion/benefit.
- The Freighthouse has the right to refuse property prior to delivery or upon inspection.
- Consignor arranges for delivery/pick up of property with/without independent mover. The Freighthouse staff is not responsible for delivery of property or moving heavy items.
- It is the responsibility of the property owner to remove unsold property from the Freighthouse within specified timeframe (see Terms and Conditions).
- The laws of California shall govern the Freighthouse Consignor/Consignee agreement. In the event of any legal actions, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reimbursement for Attorney fees not to exceed $500.

Thank you for your patronage.
We look forward to working with you to achieve the successful sale of your property!
